This certifying statement is a digital document that has been issued by Cambridge Assessment English.

If you are an employer or educational institution and seek further confirmation of the candidate's Cambridge Assessment English qualification, you can do so via our Results Verification Service. If your candidate has taken an award which cannot be verified via this service, you can request a manual verification via this online form.

Certifying Statement of Results

As the awarding body, Cambridge Assessment English will provide verification of a result for those candidates who have lost or mislaid their original certificate or who need official proof of their qualification for a third party.

A certifying statement is issued only to candidates whose results have been checked against the archived record.

For FCE, there are three passing grades, A, B and C. Candidates who have achieved a Grade A have demonstrated ability at Council of Europe Level C1.

Since March 2011, Candidates who have not achieved an FCE passing grade (Council of Europe Level B2) but have demonstrated ability at the level below this, are awarded a certificate stating Council of Europe Level B1.
