Diploma Supplement

This Diploma Supplement model was developed by the European Commission, Council of Europe and UNESCO/CEPES. The purpose of the supplement is to provide sufficient independent data to improve the international 'transparency' and fair academic and professional recognition of qualifications (diplomas, degrees, certificates etc.). It is designed to provide a description of the nature, level, context, content and status of the studies that were pursued and successfully completed by the individual named on the original qualification to which this supplement is appended. It should be free from any value judgements, equivalence statements or suggestions about recognition. Information in all eight sections should be provided. Where information is not provided, an explanation should give the reason why.

1. Information identifying the holder of the qualification

- 1.1 Family name(s): Dolidze
- 1.2 Given name(s): Tatia

4. Information on the contents and results gained

4.1 Mode of study: Full-time.

4.2 Programme requirements: This one-year, international master's programme is an advanced programme, building on the Bachelor in European Studies. The programme is situated within the broad and expanding field of interdisciplinary European Studies, focusing on European integration and the European Union in its political, cultural, historical, International and other relevant context. It offers the students the opportunity to specialize by opting for a) an international politics track (focusing on the EU's external policy in its international context), b) political-administrative track (focusing on the political and administrative aspects of European policy-making and the interaction between different levels: European, member state, and civil society) and c) a track that examines Europe in a global perspective with regards to the globalisation process and the institutions of international governance. The combination of theoretical expertise, project work and skills training aims to prepare students for an array of policy-oriented professions with a strong European or international dimension. For passing the master's exam the student needs to meet the following requirements: passing the five module examinations of the track European International Politics or of the specialisation European Politics and International Relations; or passing the five module examinations of the track European Politics and Administration or of the specialisation European Public Policy and Administration; or passing the six module examinations of the track Europe in a Global Perspective or of the specialisation Europe from a Global Perspective (total credit value of 48 ECTS credits), and passing the thesis with sufficient result (12 ECTS credits).

4.3 Programme details (e.g. modules or units studied), and the individual grades/marks/credits obtained: Relevant information regarding modules and grades obtained is provided in the attached List of Exam Subjects.

4.4 Grading scheme and, if available, grade distribution guidance:

The ECTS grading table is a standard table form which provides the statistical distribution of the grades within the following degree programme(s): Master of Arts in European Studies.

The ECTS grading table is based on the total number of grades awarded in the degree programme(s) concerned during the academic years indicated below the table. The ECTS grading table allows for simple, transparent interpretation and conversion of grades from one academic system to another.

Grade	Percentage
10	0%
9	11%
8	48%
7	33%
6	8%
Total %	100%

ECTS Grading Table: Grades awarded in academic years 2010 and 2011

The Dutch grading system, used from elementary through university education is the 1 to 10 scale given in the following table, wherein 10 is the highest grade, 6 the minimum pass and 1 the lowest grade.

- 10: excellent
- 9 very good
- 8 good
- 7 ample sufficient
- 6 sufficient
- 5 marginal fail
- 4 clear fail

Educators uniformly comment on the great difficulty in obtaining 9s and 10s and the respectability of 6s. There is also agreement that an 8 represents a high level of achievement, while grades 6 and 7 generally account for the majority of passing grades awarded.

4.5 Overall classification of the qualification: Cum Laude.
